wein then, secording to all indications. The opponents, including most of the isombers of the farm bloc and progressive ble and nearly all the Democrats, have their plans made to protract the sease their plans made to protract the concealment of their plans to filibuster to the limit if necessary. Polls of the sease made recently by the friends of the measure indicate that if it could be intent to a vote it would have a small measure.

The Committee on Commerce this sening, by a vote of 11 to 5, ordered reseted. All the Republicans, plus teasor Ransdell, of Louisians, Demonst, voted for a favorable report. Minor Changes Made

Minor Changes Made

Minor changes were ordered by the committee, but for practical purposes the bill is as tentatively agreed to last eneing. The Madden amendment for name appropriations is out of the master and the Willis compromise smedment is in. It requires approristions from Congress only if comsession contracted for is increased.

Senator Jones did not have time to separe a detailed report on the bill, in will explain it at length in his speech when he brings the massure special field a minority report against s. Senator Pletcher, for against exts, filed a minority report against he bill. The minority opposed the sabildy policy fintly.

To meet the charge that the opposion has no constructive proposition to submit, Senator Fletcher declared the evertural lesses in shipping could be starped immediately by turning all the chies wer to the Panama Steamship Company as both that company and the United States Lines, or else the partire of the ships and events them "directly, properly and successive, as conditions required."

Sees Operation at Profit

Sees Operation at Profit
Referring to the alternative of subsite, Senator Flotcher said:
The answer is the alternative, if no please—you can stop this loss imbedstay by turning all the ships over use highly successful governmentered and government-operated line, and the only one excent the United States Lines lately established in the macAllantic business, the Panama Shamship Company, or both that company and the only other government sense and operated line, the United States Lines, or else, care for and operate tem directly, properly and efficiently, as conditions require. Not was would be operated at a profit. Senter Fletcher and the rest of the Democrats of the committee oppose the idea of putting the Shipping Board set of business. The minority report out of husiness. To this point says:

One avowed object of this measure The avowed object of this measure is to put the Shipping Board out of business. We submit it is not in the public interest to dispense with a government agency of this character.

Whether all the ships are privately owned or whether some are so owned and some are owned by the government in any owned and prediction of the ships are shall need.

owned and some are awned by the government—in any one we shall need aems governmented agency to deal with the question of rates at which American commerce shall be carried. If this measure is passed and results in the allumination of the Shipping Board, at triends intend and expect. American commerce will be at the mercy of the lines running and operating the ships, even though they fly our flag. Conference agreements will determine the rates of freight, as well as passenger traffic. There will be no control with reference to the routes upon which steamship lines would be established."

In the course of the report of the macrity Senator Fletcher says:

This is a proposal to enact a law stating a permanent policy of the transmit which has been repeated broad heretofere and as often the law of the policy involves launching the Congress.

That policy involves launching the Congress of the policy involves launching the Congress.

CHICAGO, Dec. 9 .- If the "internaional bankers and the food profiteers' control both the Republican and Democratic parties when the nominations for Harriss Visions the 1924 Presidential candidates are made, undoubtedly, in the opinion of Mayor Hylan of New York, there will e a third party Presidential nomine in the field to contest the place with them. Mayor Hylan does not believe, however, that such control, which he nsists is virtually absolute to-day, w:ll last up to the time of the nominating last up to the time of the nominating conventions. What the head of the New York City government anticipates is a distinct shift in the tendencies of Democratic and Republican parties, with a corresponding change in the charact of their Presidential nominee, which, he believes, will satisfy the people and at the same time obviate the third party possibility.

Maror Hylan named Rodman Wanamaker, Gifford Pinchot or Hiram Johnson as probabilities for the Republican nomination. As the likeliest Democratic standard bearer he named William Randolph Hearst.

In his speech before the Cook County Real Estate Board to-night Mayor Hylan bitterly scored the present construction of both the Republican and Democratic parties, denounced the Ku-Klux Klan in unmeasured terms and in between took occasion to turn aside and pay a strong tribute to Hearst and the services of the Hearst papers in obtaining for himself the Mayoralty of New York.

Save Greed Sent Us Into the War

Says Greed Sent Us Into the War He also assailed both the Republican and Democratic parties, the "powers of greed and coruption" in Wall Street, blamed our entry into the war on British misrepresentations and Wall Street greed and scored the tariff law. Great Britain and the Allies, he charged, misled Americans by their censorship and edited and doctored newspaper dispatches to make them conform to their cause.

America went into the war, he said, to protect the foreign investments of the Wall Street bankers and because the great munitions manufacturers wanted the additional profits that would accrue to them.

Some bankers are now urging, he declared, that America remit the ten billion loans to the Allies because they would have a better chance of collecting their own foreign investments. He attacked Secretary of State Hughes as a "tool of the Standard Oil" and a "former Rockefeller Sunday school teacher."
